Ward profile introduction

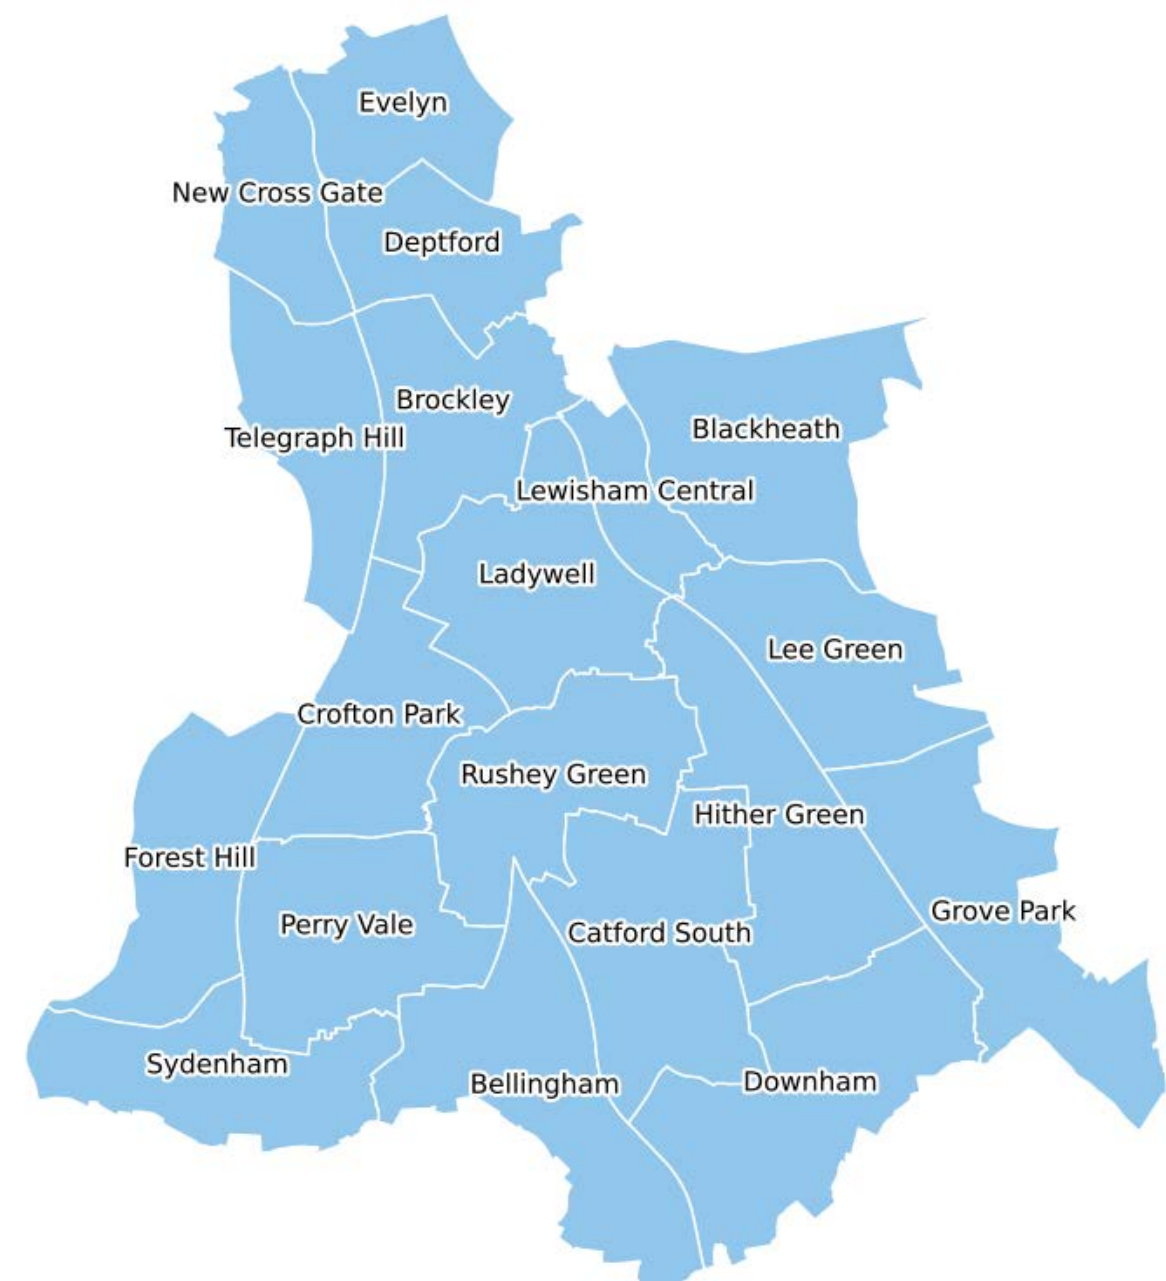

About Lewisham's Ward profiles

The ward profiles bring together some of the key data sources to provide the demographic, social and economic characteristics of an area. In May 2022, the number of wards increased from 18 to 19.

- The boundaries of two wards have stayed the same, Telegraph Hill and Forest Hill, all the others changed.
- Two wards no longer exist: New Cross and Whitefoot.
- We now have three brand new wards: Deptford, Hither Green and New Cross Gate.
- 16 wards have three Councillors.
- Three wards have only two Councillors: Bellingham, Lewisham Central and New Cross Gate.
- The total number of Councillors remained in 54, the same as the previous period.

At the time of publication, the results of the 2021 Census have not yet been published, which means many indicator variables in this report rely on potentially outdated data from the 2011 Census. Data sources of all charts and statistics are clearly stated throughout this document. Revised data will be made available in the next revision of this document.

Wards 2022

Bellingham

Bellingham is a ward with large housing estates which do not have many community spaces within them –meaning a lot of activity is “centralised” around Bellingham Green and the High Street. This can be a challenge for organising community activities in varies area within the ward, however there are also opportunities to find ways to create more “place based” community development within the area.

There is a strong community spirit and the primary schools act as key local hubs for a sense of community –shown for example in their participation in Bellingham Festival. The schools geographical location nestled within estates mean they play a key part in community life.

Bellingham is one of the four most deprived wards in Lewisham and is among the top 10% most deprived wards in England. Fly tipping tends to be a particular problem in Bellingham.

Networks and groups in the ward include; Bellingham Community Project, Bellingham Youth Forum, Fellowship and Star pub, Wildcat Wilderness. Key community events include; Bellingham Festival and Carols on the Green.

In Bellingham ward £86,040 was awarded in NCIL funding to eight projects (within the old ward boundaries). Ward priorities included; Transport and streets, Air quality, Community safety, Open/green spaces and nature, Community facilities and Youth provision. Some of the NCIL projects include; community engagement events, workshops and holiday clubs for children and young people, and community garden projects.

Among those not born in England, the three most common countries of birth are Jamaica (4.3%), Nigeria (3.9%), and Sri Lanka (1.7%).

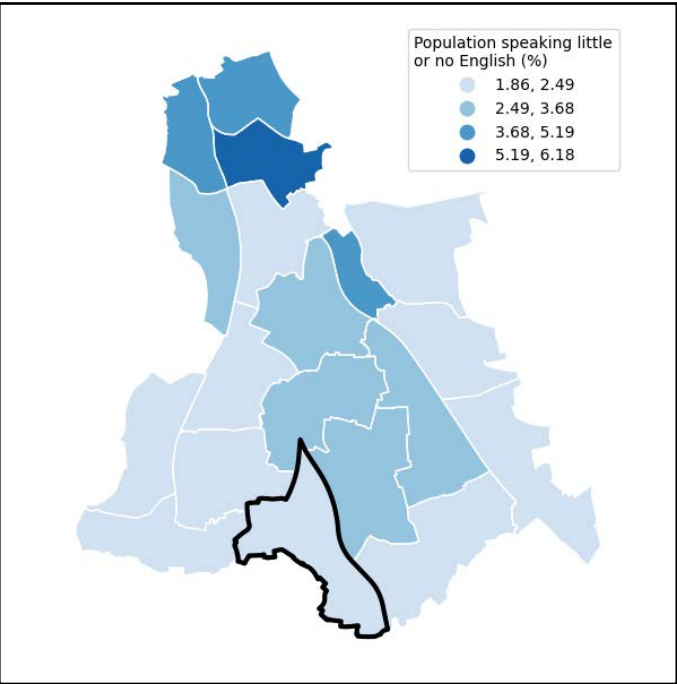

Diversity: Languages

87.1% of Bellingham residents speak English as their primary language, compared to 83.5% in Lewisham as a whole, 77.9% in London, and 92.0% in England.

Of the remaining residents, 10.5% can speak English well or very well.

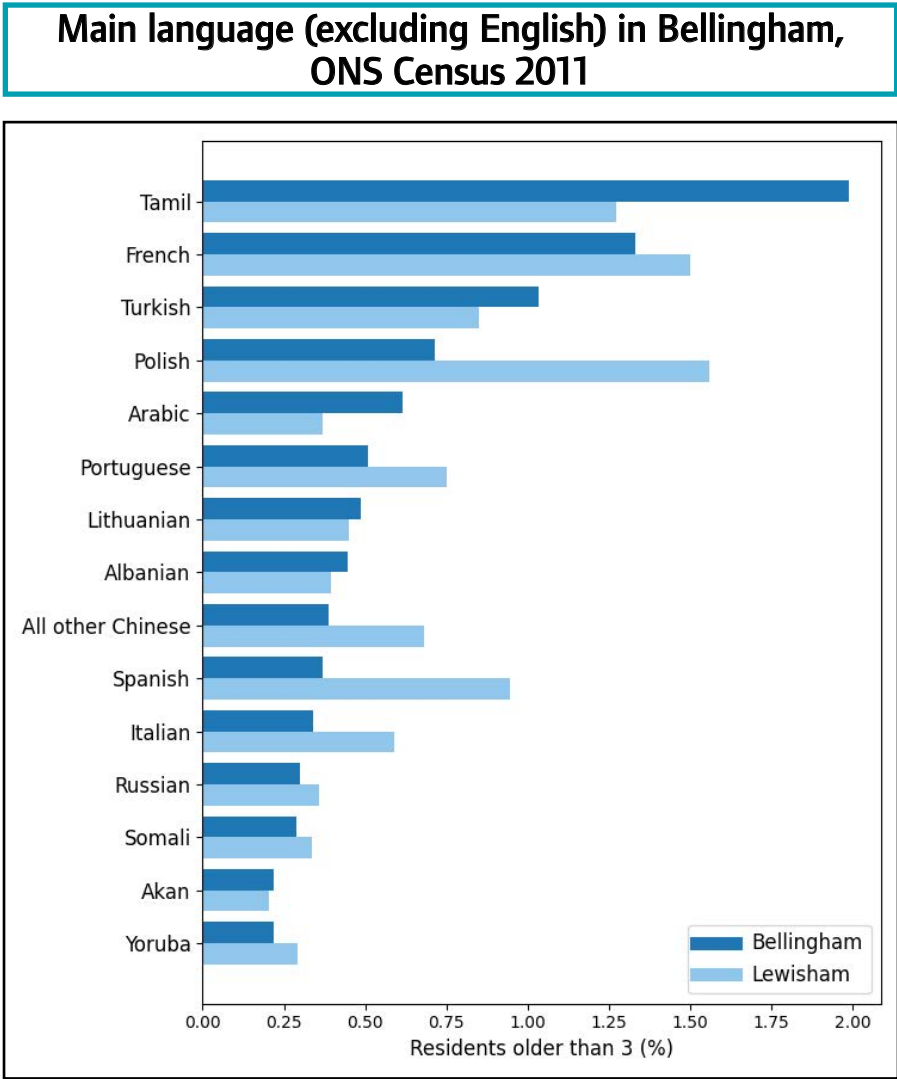

Population speaking little or no English in Bellingham, ONS Census 2011

On the other hand, 2.4% of residents cannot speak English well or at all, compared to a Lewisham average of 3.1%. This means an estimated 278 people in Bellingham may require everyday language support.

Among those not speaking English as their main language, the three most widely spoken languages are Tamil (2.0%), French (1.3%), and Turkish (1.0%).

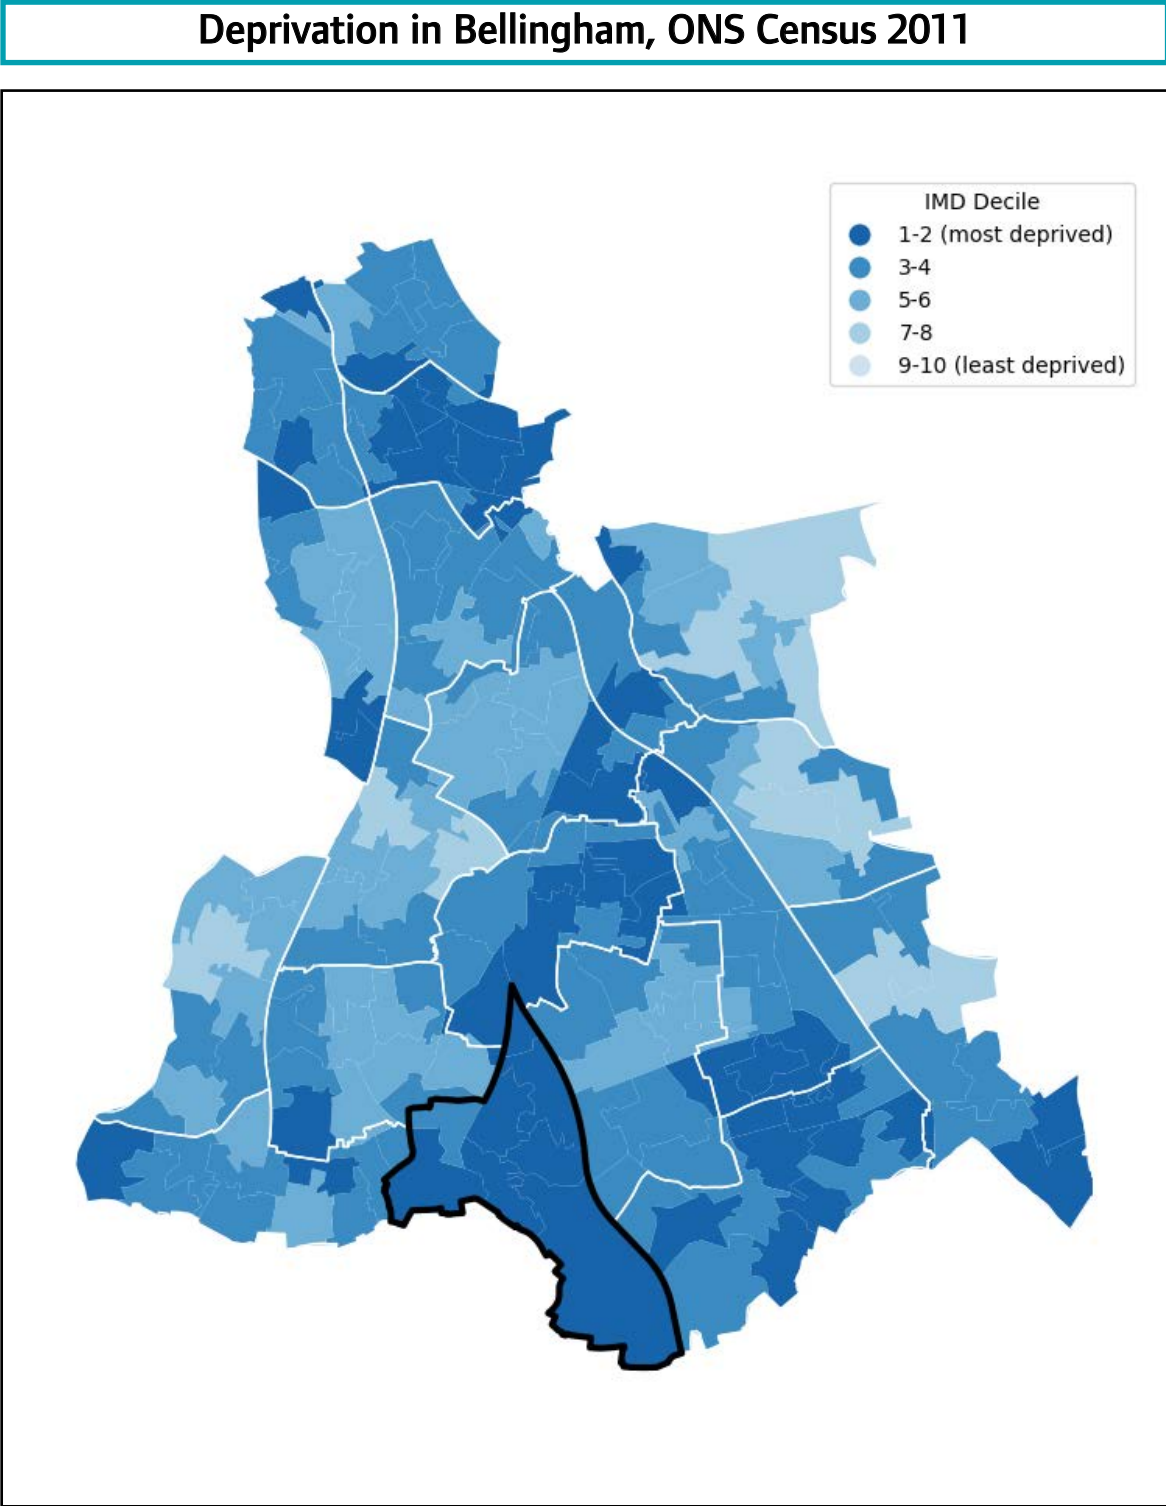

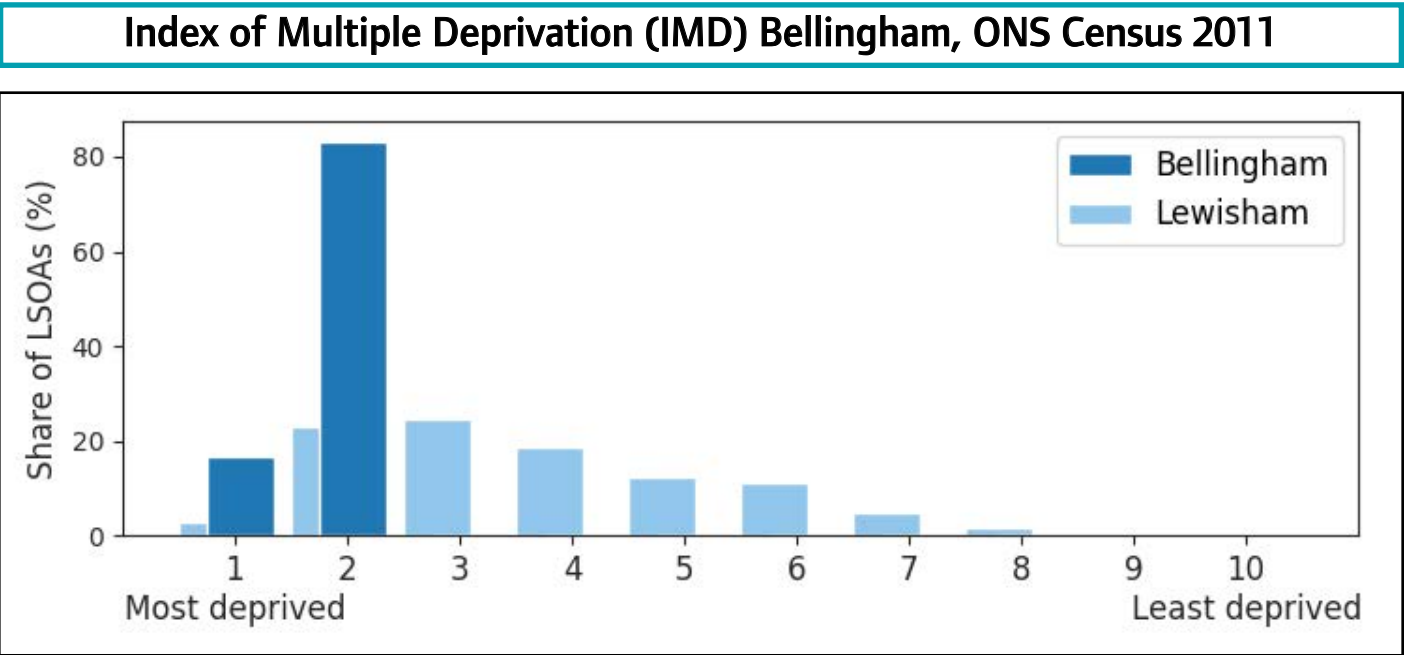

Deprivation

The Index of Multiple Deprivation (IMD) is the official measure of relative deprivation in England. It is based on multiple factors: population income, employment, education skills and training, health and disability, crime, barriers to housing and services, and general living environment.

The IMD is determined for small areas, using a statistical geography called Lower-layer Super Output Areas (LSOA), with each LSOA typically representing between 1,000 and 3,000 people. Each LSOA in England is ranked from most deprived to least deprived, and then segmented into ten groups (or deciles), with the bottom decile (or decile 1) representing the most deprived 10% LSOAs in England.

Of the six LSOAs in Bellingham, all six rank in the bottom 20% of the country (decile 1 or 2.)

Fuel poverty and EPC

Fuel poverty in England is measured statistically using the Low Income High Costs definition, under which a household is considered to be in fuel poverty if:

- They have required fuel costs that above average (the national median spend on fuel).
- Were they to spend that amount they would be left with a residual income below the official poverty line.

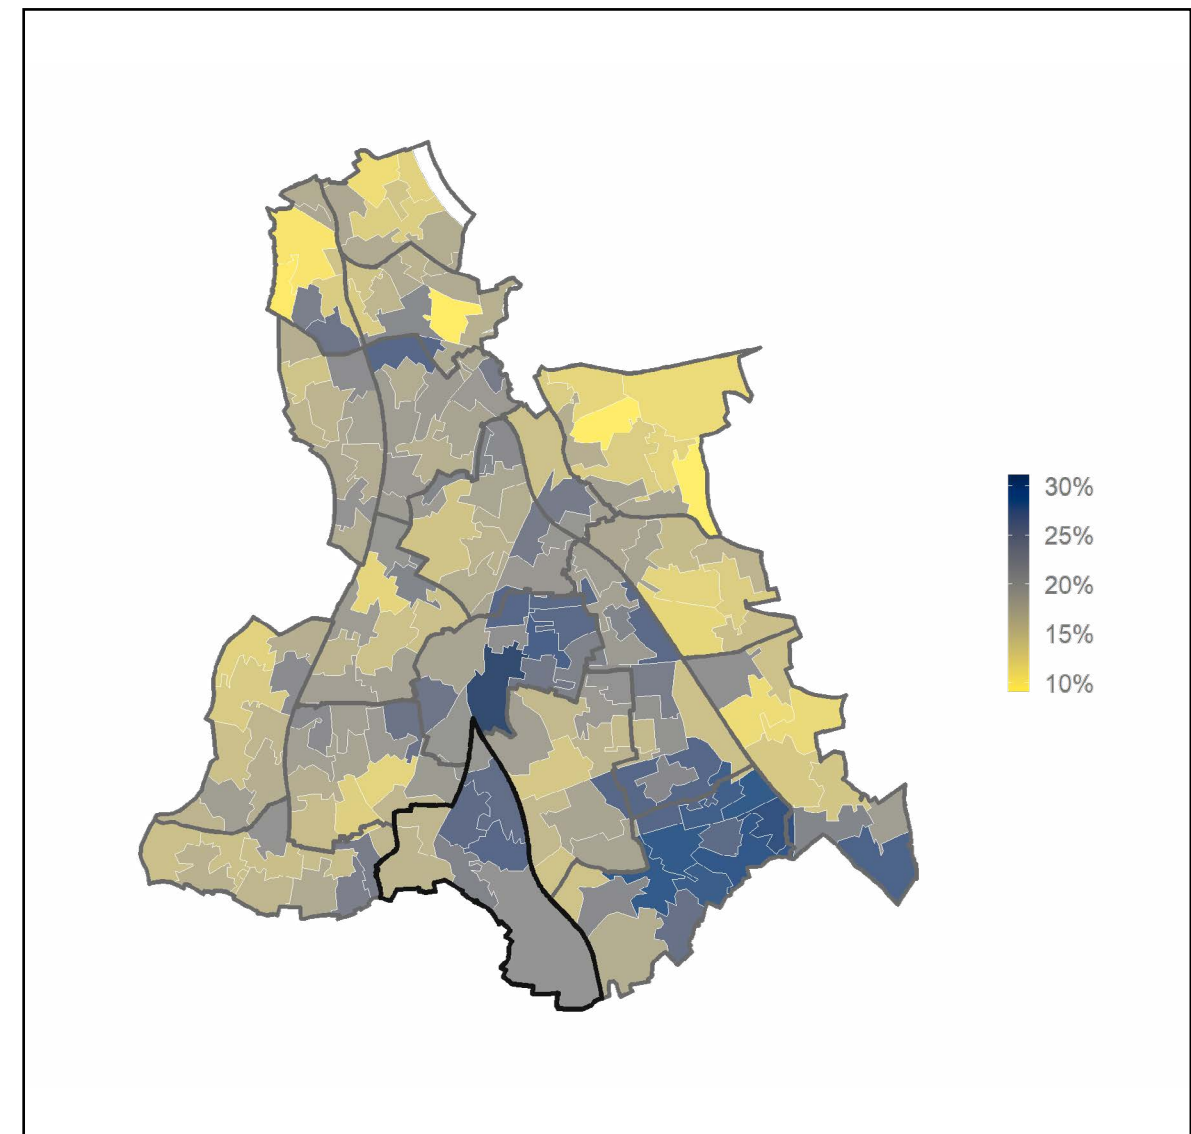

In the six LSOAs in Bellingham, proportion of households fuel poor ranges from 15.8% to 26.8%.

Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs) were first introduced in England and Wales in 2007, and are valid for 10 years. They contain information about a property's energy use and typical energy costs, and recommendations about how to reduce energy use and save money. Dwellings are rated between A (highly energy efficient) and G (highly inefficient.) The average EPC rating for dwellings in England is D.

In Bellingham, 50% of assessed households have received an EPC rating of A, B, or C, which means they are highly energy-efficient.

It is estimated that the share of highly energy-efficient dwellings in Bellingham could be as high as 87% if home owners were to carry out the improvements recommended during their assessment.

Housing and affordability

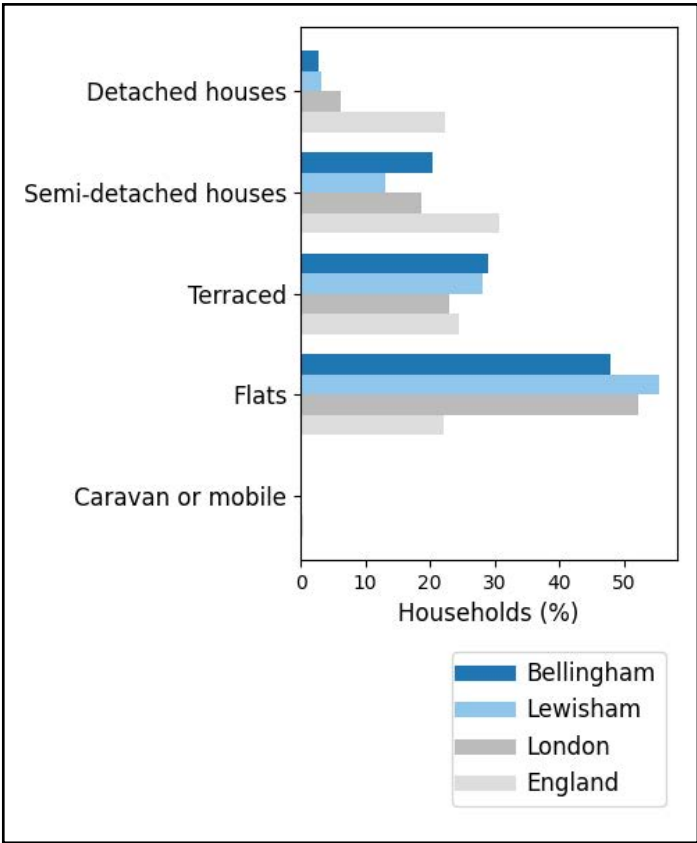

47.9% of Bellingham residents live in flats, compared to 55.4% in Lewisham as a whole, 52.2% in London, and 22.1% in England. Among Bellingham residents, the three most common accommodation types are Flats (47.9%), Terraced (28.9%), and Semi-detached houses (20.4%).

52.3% of Bellingham residents live in social rented accommodation, compared to 31.1% in Lewisham as a whole, 24.1% in London, and 17.7% in England. Among Bellingham residents, the three most common types of tenure are Social rented (52.3%), Owned (33.7%), and Private rented (12.2%).

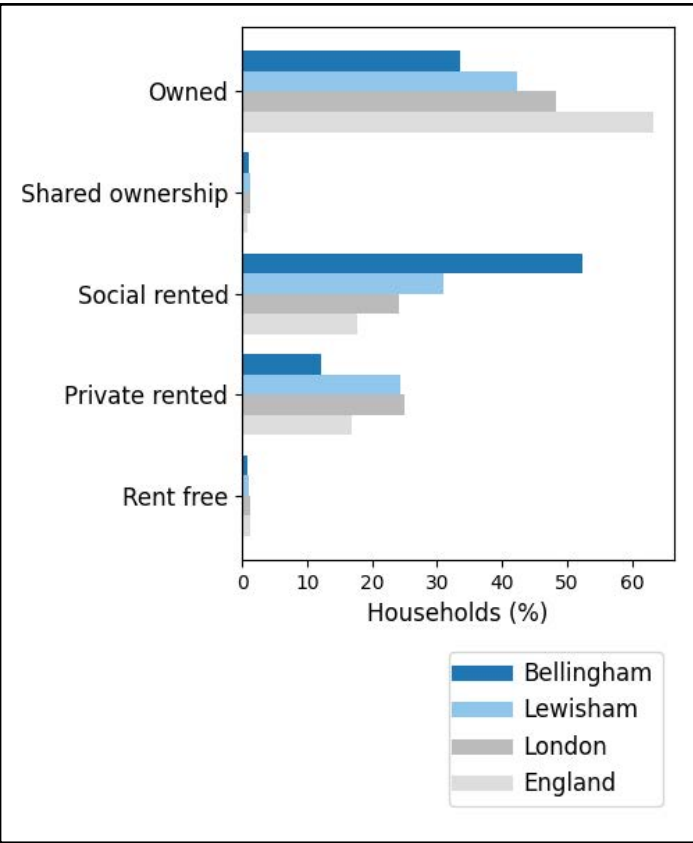

House prices in Lewisham remain lower than those for London as a whole. In 2020, the median house price in the borough was £430,000 compared with £483,000 for Greater London and £249,000 for England.

In terms of relative affordability based on median prices, Lewisham had a median work-place based income to house price ratio in 2020 of 12.3x. Based on median ratios, Lewisham was relatively more affordable than Lambeth, Greenwich and Bromley; and less affordable than Southwark, Croydon, Tower Hamlets and London overall, the South East region and England.

Benefit claimants

Universal Credit is the primary social security payment for working-age people with a low household income. It was introduced in 2013 and has gradually replaced six prior benefits: income-based Employment and Support Allowance, income-based Jobseeker’s Allowance, and Income Support; Child Tax Credit and Working Tax Credit; and Housing Benefit. All Universal Credit recipients receive a standard payment that varies by age and whether they live with a partner. Additional payments are offered to help with housing, children and childcare, sickness and disability, and for carers. A further weekly £20 uplift was offered during the COVID-19 pandemic until September 2021.

In Bellingham, 1,966 people received Universal Credit in February 2022. By comparison, in February 2020, 931 people received Universal Credit.

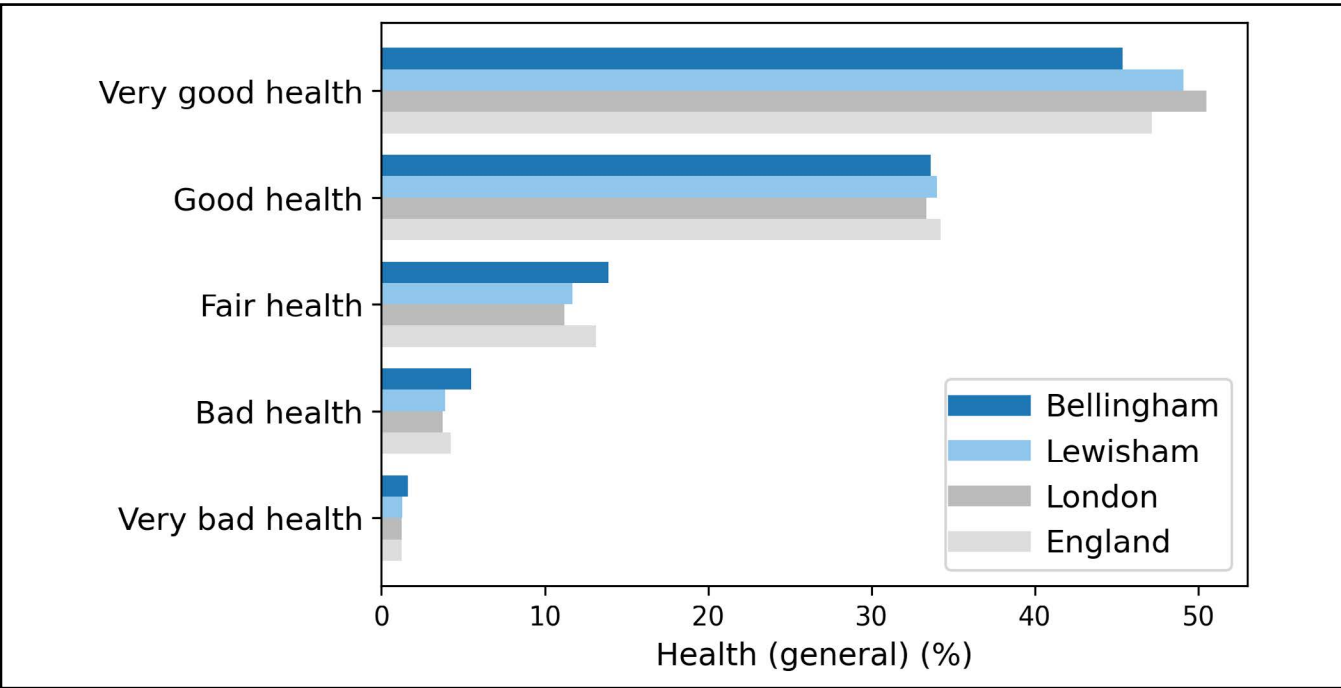

Health and wellbeing

Census captures different metrics related to a self-assessment of health which can be a useful indicator of the population’s general wellbeing and health-related quality of life. These include general health, day-to-day activities limited, and provision of unpaid care.

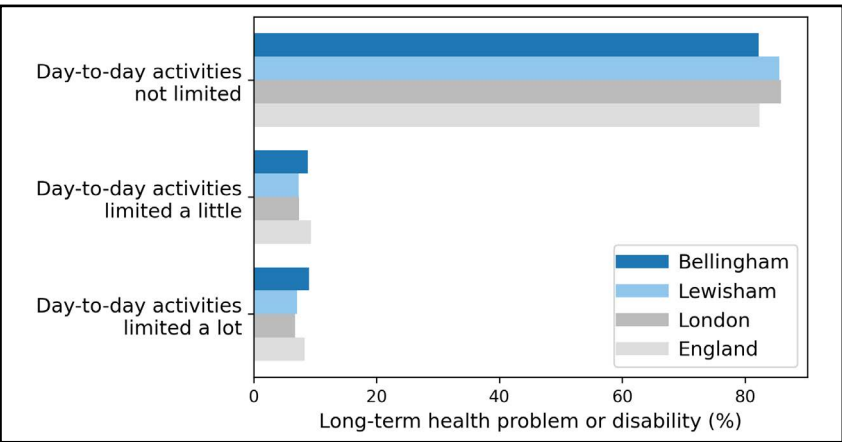

The average rate of Bellingham residents in very good/good health is 79% compared to a Lewisham average of 81% and a national average of 83%.

General health status in Bellingham, ONS Census 2011

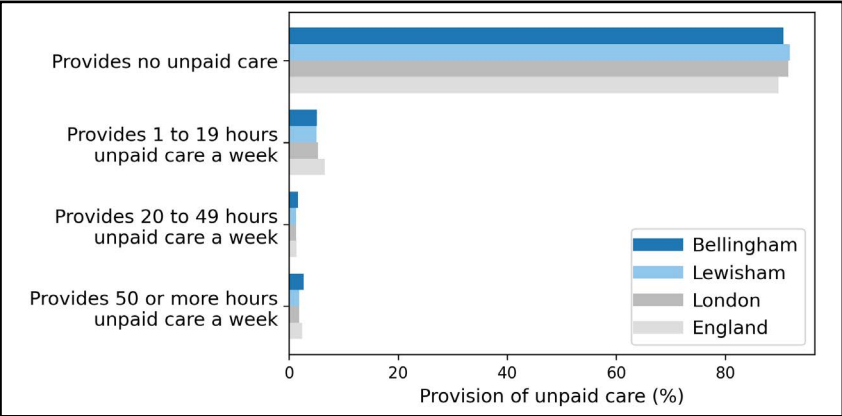

Around 9% residents of Bellingham had a long term health problem or disability limiting their day to day activities a lot compared to a Lewisham average of 7% and a national average of 8.3%.
